

We Knew What Kodol Would Do

When we duplicated Nature's digestive process, in making it. But Nature digests food—if she has a chance. Kodol does it anyway. Kodol digests all foods.

That is about the only distinction between Nature and Kodol. Kodol can digest food without Nature's assistance. Nature, however, frequently needs Kodol very badly. In chronic dyspepsia—for instance.

If you could visit the establishment of the manufacturers of Kodol—you could see all the kinds of food fully and completely digested, in a natural manner, in the laboratory test-tubes—you would be entirely satisfied that Kodol digests food wherever it finds it. And such is the case.

Kodol is not advertised as a "cure" for anything. No extravagant claims of any kind are made for it. Yet we knew positively what Kodol would accomplish—in any form of indigestion or dyspepsia—before the first spoonful entered a human stomach.

Kodol is merely intended to render Nature proper aid, in the proper way, at the proper time. Yet that aid is sufficient to quickly rectify any digestive trouble. The digestive organs cannot help but be restored to healthy activity, when Kodol is used.

And remember: When taking Kodol, there are no long delays waiting for the disappearance of the pain and discomforts of indigestion. Relief is instantaneous, and permanent benefit sure. If you are troubled with such symptoms as belching of gas, pain in the pit of the stomach, sour stomach, etc.—it is time to take Kodol—before you get dyspepsia.

Kodol digests food. It assists Nature to dispose of the food waste in a mild and effective manner. It operates as a general tonic and re-adjuster of the system. And it doesn't take Kodol long to do this.

PINE FOREST.

Pine Forest, March 4.—Mr. Peters and Mr. Best made a trip through Baldwin county last week, stopping at Fairhope and many other places. They seemed to be favorably impressed with the country. After the trip Peters stated that the soil might be some better than here, but he preferred this on account of the nearness to the Pensacola market.

J. T. Ransley and Miss Paepere were in Pensacola Friday.

Q. C. Webb and Misses Mary Spare and Margaret Webb went to the school entertainment at Beulah Friday night. Miss Spare remained over Sunday with her parents in Beulah.

Homar and Chipley Diamond, who have been stopping at Klondyke, are spending a week with home folks in Pine Forest.

Q. C. Webb and Miss Mary Spare were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snowden, of Klondyke, Sunday. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Diamond, and attended the services in the Baptist church.

William Webb, Earnest Diamond, Harvey Peters and others went to Klondyke Sunday.

Emmet Waters and two sisters were in Pine Forest Sunday, calling upon Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Webb and attending the services in the Methodist church.

A. J. Ransley and Miss Ida Paepere spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Webb and family.

Mrs. Hall is visiting with friends in Muscogee.

Mrs. Winnie Martin, who was recently very ill, is very much better now, and is visiting with friends in Pensacola. Mrs. Martin was the guest of Mrs. Best last week.

Miss Ida Paepere, of Elgin, Ill., who has been visiting in Pine Forest as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ransley since Dec. 15th, went to Pensacola Monday. Miss Paepere expects to remain in Pensacola for about three months, and is staying with Mrs. E. L. Nordstrom.

Arthur J. Ransley was in Pensacola Monday.

A. C. Diamond was in Pensacola Monday.

Quiller and James Webb and Misses Mary Spare and Margaret Webb were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ransley Tuesday evening. The occasion was the twenty-second anniversary of their son, Arthur J. Ransley's, birth. The evening was pleasantly spent. Music was much enjoyed, and after refreshments were served the guests joined in wishing Mr. Ransley many happy returns of the day.

There will be regular church services in school house No. 14 next Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

There will be preaching in the Methodist church next Sunday at 3:30 p. m., by the pastor, E. W. Roberts. Sunday school will be held at 2 p. m.

COTTAGE HILL.

Special to The Journal.

Cottage Hill, March 3.—Our school made an average attendance of nearly 90 per cent last month.

The teachers' meeting at Muscogee last week was very interesting to teachers in all its details.

Prof. Dunham, of Century called at our village last Saturday.

A flag pole has been erected in our school grounds, on which is unfurled the patriotic colors of our country every nice day.

Mrs. Lillie Harris and friend, of Molino, were calling in our burg Tuesday.

James Pugh expects to return to his farm in Minnesota about the first of next month.

Walter Gentry, of Bluff Springs, called at our village Tuesday and was cordially greeted by his friends.

Robert Harron is repairing his house and fighting fire between times. The fire destroyed a string of fence for him Monday.

Mrs. Laura Helleland left for her northern home in Indiana on Tuesday.

Miss Anna Levy is very sick.

Ralph Reeve went to town Monday.

The Misses Dexter, of Roberts, gave us a pleasant call Sunday.

J. G. White has repapered and refurnished his house.

George Taylor, of the L. & N. construction gang, has moved his headquarters from Cantonment to Cottage Hill.

We wish to call the attention of prospective home seekers to the natural advantages of this section of country. Healthy location, par-excellent climate, good railroad, good hard road for automobiling, which is taken advantage of by many, and we are also on the main line of travel north and south. We expect an efficient electric line to yet materialize.

The fourth grade in our school is in correspondence with the same grade in the Red Lodge school, Montana. The fifth grade is in correspondence with the fifth grade of a school in Leipsic, Ohio. Scholars tell of the climate, soil and products. This method will create an interest and a desire for more knowledge about our country, while it also teaches language and composition.

The W. C. T. U. meeting held last Sunday was very interesting. President Mrs. W. J. Hahn occupied the chair. Mr. and Mrs. Williams rendered a nice duet. Mrs. White gave a reading that was touching and interesting, showing the result of drinking intoxicants. J. C. Loy's address on "Sabbath Desecration" was given marked attention. Mrs. Helen Youkey and Miss Julia Hahn sang a solo of pleasing melody and rich sentiment. The program was interesting and well executed.

Six couples of our young people dropped down by prearrangement, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corfman, Tuesday night, and spent the time until a late hour in games teeming with mirth. All departed expressing appreciation of the pleasures of the night. Corfman's latch string is hanging on the outside to the young people for fun and amusement.

Mr. Searl, of Roberts, was in our town this week to get a spraying outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Youkey contemplate spending the coming summer with their many friends in the north. Quite a number of the pear trees in Mr. Weeks's and Mr. Pierce's orchards were killed by a fire burning the grass.

The Epworth League meeting for next Sunday night will be led by Master Frankie Adams.

Cured of Bronchitis

BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

W. E. WHEELER

Bronchitis is a much more serious disease than an ordinary cold, and much more likely to result in pneumonia. It is commonly spoken of as a cold on the lungs. There is little if any danger, however, when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is judiciously used.

Only Few Doses Required

"Before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I suffered with an attack of bronchitis two or three times a year, and each attack seemed to be worse," says W. E. Wheeler, 423 W. Ninth St., Los Angeles, Cal. "The medicine the doctor prescribed seemed to give me relief, but did not afford a cure. My daughter used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in her family, and one day when I was visiting her she advised me to try it. I felt so wretched that I was willing to try almost anything, and so took part of a bottle she had on hand, and then bought a large bottle and one more, and that cured me. Whenever I feel an attack coming on

I take a few doses, and I have not been bothered any more. I have much cause to be grateful to the manufacturers of this remedy."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This remedy is especially suited to the treatment of bronchitis, as it causes the expulsion of mucus from the bronchial tubes, making breathing easier, and minimizing the danger of contracting pneumonia. This remedy has a world wide reputation for its cures and can always be depended upon. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. Price per bottle twenty-five cents, large size fifty cents.
